

THE CHARIOKE POP-ROCK HIP-HOP COUNTRY MUSIC QUIZ

TUESDAY 27 APRIL 2010 | 8PM

What is George Michael's real name?

Which permed footballer had a European Top Ten hit?

Who was mildly annoyed by Manic Mondays?

From the team that brought you Charioke Marathon comes THE CHARIOKE POP-ROCK-HIP-HOP-COUNTRY QUIZ. Your chance to do your bit for Refugee Action under the warm neon glow of Lucky Voice. If you know your Debbie Harrys from your Debbie Gibsons then please, join us. You'll be battling for prizes. And your musical dignity.

You've gotta fight for your right to party

We need teams to flex their musical know-how and help raise money for Refugee Action. Be warned though, quiz-lovers. You need to get in quick to guarantee your team a place so be sure to book in advance. Teams are a maximum of five and it costs £10 per person to enter.

Email giving@refugee-action.org.uk or call 020 7654 7705 to reserve your place.

My name is...

The night will be compered by the honourable Chas Summers, resident of Strawberry Moons, Digress City and Bar Rumba. He'll be firing off the questions and keeping order too.

Ride on time

Warm up your larynx with two for one cocktail offers until 10pm.

Get your quiz on: Kick-off is at 8pm, fighting bitterly till the 9.30pm end.

Flex the mic: Free karaoke post-quiz for 33 lucky, lucky people.

Walk this way

Lucky Voice, 173-174 Upper Street, London N1 1RG

If you don't know me by now

The cash raised is going straight to Refugee Action to help people fleeing war and persecution rebuild their lives. Find out why we're asking you to polish up on Wham! by going to refugee-action.org.uk.
